

DANIEL SAGE

New York City singer/songwriter/multi-instrumentalist/producer Daniel Sage has performed at Carnegie Hall, the United Nations, Lincoln Center, and worked with everyone from Nile Rodgers (Chic, Beyoncé, Madonna) to Victor Wooten (Béla Fleck & The Flecktones), Darius Rucker, Keb' Mo', Rita Marley (Bob Marley's wife), opened for Kip Winger (Winger) and more.

Dubbed “Rocket Man” by Bold Life magazine, Daniel released his Debut Single “Drew Barrymore ’n Me..” in 2024, to wide acclaim. The upbeat single features numerous film titles, from throughout Barrymore’s incredible career, in the lyrics, that somehow fit perfectly in the song, so much so, that you might not even realize that many of them are actually film titles.

One chorus, and you’re already singing along with it! Within just one day of its release, it has already begun airing on the radio, on multiple stations, and is catching the attention of radio station program directors and DJs, the internet, and fans.

“When I first heard this song, I thought ‘this HAS to already be a Top 40 song, right?!’, says Mark Warwick, Program Director at WTZQ 95.3 FM. “It stuck with me! I couldn’t stop singing after one listen! It will have a place in our regular programming here at WTZQ.”

The accompanying Music Video is becoming a hit as well, featuring a little boy “rocking out”, who along with Sage, send a message directly to Drew, telling her that he will serenade Ms. Barrymore live on her own hit television show “The Drew Barrymore Show”, which also films in New York City.

The hashtag #SayYesDrew is already taking on a life of its own, as fans from all over the world have already begun sending messages to Drew, on all of her social media accounts, including her Instagram, Facebook and TikTok accounts, encouraging her to invite Sage on, and be serenaded live in person!

Sage produced the new single, and sang all of the vocals and played the instruments as well. The song and the music video can be heard at SayYesDrew.com or DanielSage.com or on any platform here. A portion of all streams/sales of the single are being donated to charity.

This year also sees Sage releasing his Debut Album (produced by Sage), making TV and Radio appearances, and live concerts promoting the release. From making music since he was a little boy, to producing and performing numerous concerts from NYC to LA, and now hearing his music on the radio and watching people sing his lyrics and songs, Sage is living his dreams!
